

At the Dentist

Part 1: Comprehension

1. T / F Mike is surprised to see Aron at the dentist.
2. T / F Aron came to the dentist to get his teeth cleaned.
3. T / F Mike's tooth hurts a lot.
4. T / F Mike is waiting for the dentist.
5. T / F Mike wants the dentist to remove his tooth.
6. T / F The dentist removed Mike's tooth.
7. T / F Mike has to see the dentist again tomorrow.
8. T / F The dentist wants to take some x-rays tomorrow.

Part 2: Language Reductions

- Aron? _____ doing here? _____ a dentist appointment too?
- Hey Mike. Yeah. I'm here for a cleaning. What about you?
- It's my tooth. It's killing me. I'm waiting to see the dentist. She _____ me soon. She _____ something about my tooth. It really hurts.
- Don't worry. I'm sure the dentist _____ able to help you. You won't _____ too much longer.
- You don't think she's _____ me she _____ my tooth, do you?.
- I _____. If she _____ it, she will. But I'm sure she will try to save it if she can.
- Well I guess I won't _____ any longer to find out. She's ready to see me now.

- So what happened?
- Well, first she said he'd _____ the tooth.
- Then what happened? Did she _____ it?
- No. She decided to fill it, not pull it. But she said I'd _____ back tomorrow. She _____ some x-rays, and she _____ my other teeth.
- That sucks dude.
- I know. Well anyways, good luck with your cleaning.
- Thanks Mike. I am not worried. My teeth are always perfect.