

The next task is Conversations. In this task, you will listen to a conversation. You will then answer two questions to check your comprehension of the conversation.

Conversation 1

What is the woman's problem?

- She is not improving at a language.
- She does not have time to study.
- She cannot find a good language app.
- She forgot vocabulary that she learned.

What does the man recommend?

- Taking a class at a school
- Traveling to a Spanish-speaking country
- Watching content in the target language
- Practicing with a language partner

Conversation 2

What is the woman's problem?

- She missed the meeting.
- She cannot print documents she needs.
- Her computer is not working.
- The supply cabinet is locked.

What does the man suggest as an alternative solution?

- Postponing the meeting
- Asking a colleague to print the documents
- Displaying the documents on a screen
- Writing notes by hand

Conversation 3

What is the man considering doing?

- Moving to a bigger apartment
- Getting a pet
- Visiting a park more often
- Volunteering at an animal shelter

What concern does the woman raise?

- The man's apartment is too noisy.
- Owning a dog can be costly.
- The nearby park is too small.
- The man works too many hours.

Conversation 4

Why will the campus café be unavailable?

- It is permanently closing.
- It is undergoing construction work.
- It is moving to a new location.
- It is closed for a holiday.

What temporary option will be available to students?

- A cafeteria in the library
- Meal delivery to classrooms
- Discounts at a nearby restaurant
- A mobile food vendor outside the library

Conversation 1

- A: I've been trying to learn Spanish for months, but I'm not making much progress.
- B: Have you tried watching Spanish movies or some popular TV programs? It helped me a lot when I was learning.
- A: Not really. I mostly just use a language app on my phone.
- B: Apps are great for vocabulary, but listening to native speakers is really important for getting the pronunciation and rhythm right.
- A: That makes sense. I'll give it a try.

What is the woman's problem?

Conversation 2

- A: The printer in the office is out of ink again. I need to print these reports before the meeting.
- B: I think there are some spare cartridges in the supply cabinet. Did you check there?
- A: No, I didn't think of that. I'll go look.
- B: If there aren't any, you could email the documents to the conference room screen. That way you won't need printed copies at all.
- A: Good idea. Thanks.

Conversation 3

- A: I'm thinking about adopting a dog, but I'm not sure if I'm ready for the responsibility.
- B: It's definitely a big commitment. Do you have enough space at home?
- A: I have a small apartment, but there's a park nearby.
- B: That helps. Just keep in mind that dogs really need daily walks and regular vet visits. It can get expensive.
- A: I hadn't really thought about the vet costs. I'll need to look into that more.

Conversation 4

- A: Did you hear that the campus café is closing for renovations next week?
- B: Really? For how long?
- A: About three weeks. There's a food truck that will park outside the library during that time though.
- B: That's good to know. The library is on my way to class, so that works out.
- A: Same. I just hope the prices are reasonable.
